THROUGH A WOMAN'S EYE

By Mrs. W. W. Whitaker

Do not come around and cry on my shoulder because I was in the minority about the beer election. I never drink it anyway.

Mr. N. being asked what he was going to do now since beer had been banned, stated that he was going back to drinking whiskey; Mr. X. said he was going to distill his home-brew outfit.

Hurrah for good old Oxberry, where more wash pot gosh is made than any place in the county, which took no place in potential competition by voting beer out 3 to 1.

Seriously, I hope all of the good things that the anti-beer folks hoped will materialize, and that we will have a better community. God knows this community has become rougher and rougher, and needs something.

Let's all forget the beer election. We have a war to win. We will soon be engulfed with thousands of soldiers. Thanksgiving will come shortly, then Christmas. Our gallant allies are pleading for material aid; our brave Marines on Solomon Island are badly in need of reinforcements. Let's all send help quickly. Grant to your sons head quickly. Grant to your nephews who voted for repeat-the same right that you kept for your self—that is to vote as your conscience dictated.

A lady just scraped off a couple of hundred miles of rubber on her front right tire. Oh, me, she will be walking soon and maybe her hips will get down to size.

Aint they sweet.

Please look at the expiration date on YOUR copy, and see if YOU are paid up.

Let us show you samples of the personal stationery we print not only for soldiers but for the wimmenfolks. It's nice and not so costly.

The Jones boys are about winding up work at the camp. They still have some work at the air base.

David Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cunningham, and G. L. Cunningham, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cunningham, both of the Oxberry community passed thru here recently enroute for final examination in Uncle Sam's navy. These young men are double first cousins and fine specimens.

His many friends made a veritable garden of beautiful flowers of the lobby of Grenada Bank when the news spread that Ben Adams had been elected President of that institution.

John Horton's folks fussed at him so much that he finally got back on the mailing list. He lives at Weslaco, Texas. Good luck, John.

Grandjaw Jake Whitaker was in town recently.

I am sorry to learn that Squire C. A. Carpenter, of Little Texas is in bad health.

W. E. Abel was able to scratch up two ticks and that N. abled us to put him on the mailing list.

There is so damn much going on that I cannot keep up with one-third of it.

Judie's brothers took in about $2,000 for the City Treasury last month—a record.

Taking sugar away from the wash pot distillers will not break them up. Serbum's molasses and corn meal will fill the gap.

Licker went up six dollars a case on the first, some of our good church members, however, got in under the wire.

Aint they sweet.

M. Thomason is threatening to subscribe.

Dear Private A. W. Hammons: the reason you have not been getting your paper is that you did not notify us of your change of address to Chicago.

Uncle Thomason was a recent visitor.

I have no apologies to make concerning my stand on the beer question. With beer voted out, we will have beer supporters piled on top of whisky supporters.

Frank Theisman, a student at Ole Miss, has been added to the list. Thus the GCW grows.

Please help keep Horn and Green out of devilment this week-end by working in the job work.

MR. J. T. THOMAS

"Heads fallen. We now pause before that splendid prodigy who towered among us like some ancient ruin."

WHEREAS: It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom, mercy, and love to call to His eternal reward our beloved chieftain and founder, Mr. J. T. Thomas,

WHEREAS: His life and deeds are monumental works in themselves—he lived and fought and labored for the protection and comfort of the humble, the suffering and the lowly.

WHEREAS: The profoundest of his mind, the inspiration to be gained by his passionate sense of justice, his counsel and advice so freely and abundantly given, will forever serve as an unmeasurable aid to us in the cause he so much loved:

THREEORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the Colored Relief Society realizes that it has lost its greatest individual force, and bows its head in tears with his relatives and other friends and organizations to which he belonged, and pledges itself anew to strive to perpetuate the Colored Relief Society to which he contributed so liberally.

RESOLVED: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Society, a copy be published in the local paper, and a copy be furnished to the sorrowing wife and family of Mr. Thomas.

J. T. THOMAS—IN MEMORIAM

WHEREAS: The Grenada Rotary Club has suffered the loss of its beloved and only honorary member in the passing of J. T. Thomas, whose spirit, on a quiet autumn night, left the clay which had so long and so much ennobled, and

WHEREAS: J. T. Thomas exemplified everything that distinguishes Rotariness—a banker without vanity, a citizen without fear, a neighbor without reproach, a Christian without hypocrisy—whose living and lasting traits were above self. And

WHEREAS: J. T. Thomas was particularly among his fellows; generous and sympathetic with the unfortunate, whether of high or low estate, white or colored, giving audience to the ragged as generously as to the rank and dignified; courtesy, kindness, justice and patience the supreme attributes of a gentleman always evident among his virtues.

Therefore, Be It Resolved: That our Club will miss the living presence of our brother, and ever cherish the memory of his fruitful life. That we share the grief of the bereaved wife and family and all the many who are made sorrowful because of his going.

Green be the turf about thee, Friend of our better days.

None knew thee, but to love thee.

None named thee, but in praise.

Be It Resolved Finally: That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Club and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

"IT" has just started.

THE HOME FRONT

REGIONAL OFFICE OF WAR INFORMATION

The dread plague disease—typhus, is on the increase in Nazi-held territory, especially in the Balkans. Typhus thrives in cold weather, and reports from overseas reveal something surprising—the German army is unable to get typhus vaccine.

New reports of food shortages are also trickling in from our information sources in Naziland. The only decent crop this year was obtained from the lowly potato. Meat supplies are so short the Italians are getting only about five ounces per week per person.

RUBBER RUMOR

Published reports that the rubber shortage has been lifted and that "tires for all" will be available next month, are false. There is hope that tires can be furnished for "essential" driving next year, but that's going to leave a heap of folks out in the cold. The dope now is that synthetic rubber may be available for family use sometime in 1944.

The rubber situation has not changed. Rigid conservation of rubber by every car driver is an absolute and vital war necessity.

FARM HELP

Workers on WPA rolls are being reclassified. Some will be put to work on farms.

Stores are feeling the man-power pinch now. Faced with dwindling stocks, as well as loss of help, small shopkeepers particularly, will be forced to work harder, cut out some of their services to customers, and be very careful in granting credit.

CHRISTMAS NOTES

Our second war-time holiday season will find coffee rationed, liquor and cigarettes more expensive. OPA price ceilings over plum puddings, fruit cake, apple-cider and candied fruits.

After November 28, every member of the family over 15 years of age will be entitled to one pound of coffee each five weeks.

Men who enter military service must return their ration books to their local board. Use of these books for anyone except the person to whom it's issued is illegal.

INDOOR SPORTS PROTECTED

OPA says recreation is important to morale. Bowlers and artists of the billiard cue are going to be protected against price increase in their pastimes soon.

Manufacture and sale of house trailers is being restricted. They're needed in war-bonk localities.

CONGRATULATIONS

WPA says the current scrap drive has achieved amazing results, and has increased steel production. Your scrap is going places now...

FBI Men Proved They Weren't Knit-Wits, Anyway

FBI men thought they were on to something big when Seattle police discovered a notebook containing this cryptic entry: "K 1, P 2, C O 8, K 5, Y O, K 3, P 2, DEC R 6, K 5, INC 4." They spent quite while trying to decode it but finally even the cipher experts confessed they were stumped.

In desperation they set out to find the owner of the notebook, who turned out to be an attractive blonde. Upon request she obligingly translated the coded entry: "Knit one, purl two, cast on eight, knit five, yarn over, knit three, purl two, decrease six, knit five, increase four."

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

CHRISTIAN NURTURE IN THE FAMILY

LESSON TEXT—Deuteronomy 6:4-9, 20-23; II Timothy 3:14, 15.
GOLDEN TEXT—Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it—Proverbs 22:6.

The religious life of the home is a determining factor in the life of the child, for it is in the home that the child's whole existence centers and from which he receives the repeated impressions, day by day, which determine character and destiny. Then too, it is in the home that the parent has the opportunity to demonstrate the reality of the faith professed in the church and to show the child that Christianity really counts in the ordinary experiences of life.

I. By Recognizing God's Word
(Deut. 6:4-9).

Twice a day the orthodox Jew repeated the words of verses 4 and 5, "the Shema," in his time of prayer, morning and night. It was the foundation of his faith, declaring the oneness of God in a world of many heathen gods, and calling for complete and absolute devotion to Him.

But it was not enough that these words should be repeated in the service, they were to be taught with all diligence to the children and to be a normal and natural part of their daily conversation.

Here is a matter of great significance to us. The faith which we profess in the church must be effectively brought into the home. It is not enough to carry a Bible on Sunday, it should be in use in the home throughout the week; not only in family worship, but in the incidents of daily life.

The family altar has gradually disappeared, and it is regrettable that it has, for the testimony of generations indicates that in family worship some of the most useful men and women of all ages have received the direction of life which made them great for God.

Let us not readily assume that it is not possible for us to have a family altar simply because of the difficulties of time, place, etc. But if we cannot have such worship regularly, let us show our children that we have a real interest by reading our Bibles, by sharing some blessing found therein with them, and by making prayer the natural thing in the home at all times, not just in hours of trial or adversity. Let us recognize God's Word in our family life.

II. By Remembering God's Blessing
(Deut. 6:20-25).

The nation that forgets its past will have no future worth remembering. The Israelites were to recall that the glorious history of God's loving kindness toward them bore testimony to the truth of His Word and to the faithfulness with which He had kept them. Their young people would thus be encouraged to trust God for the future. "Hitherto the Lord hath helped," means that henceforth we may count on Him.

In every nation there are those occasions of history where only God could deliver—and He did. The recollection of such events in a way which will give the glory to God rather than to man will strengthen faith and cause men to look to God in the hour of need, and to thank Him in the day of victory.

In the family too, we should cultivate the sacred memories of God's deliverance, of His blessing, of the joy of His fellowship in bright as well as threatening moments. Children who hear such matters gratefully rehearsed in the home have an effective anchor in a time of storm.

III. By Continuing in God's Grace
(II Tim. 3:14, 15).

That which we learn of Christ and of God's Word is to be translated into living for Christ. The experiences of grace and the remembrance of God's blessing of childhood are not for that period of life alone but for a continuing in God's grace. This carries our thought a bit beyond the responsibility of the parent to provide the proper surroundings and training, and stresses the duty of the child to apply, perfect, and continue that experience of Christian truth and testimony.

Too many careless individuals, who because of the desires of their own wicked hearts have abandoned the church and the Book, blame it on the parents. "They were too strict. We had to go to church too much. They made me go to Sunday school"—such are their excuses. Of course, we know that they are only excuses, not reasons. They are the refuge of the hypocrite who is not willing to face his own terrible responsibility.

The obligation is on each one of us to continue in the things we have learned, and if we do not, the judgment must come upon us. If we do, salvation and blessing will come to us, and we in turn will pass it on to others.

May this lesson turn many an American home back to God's way.

Velvet Is a Fabric Favorite For Lovely 'Dress Up' Things

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

VELVET has ever been a magic word in the fabric realm and this season its flattery is being played up more glamorously than ever. It is in lavish mood that designers are stressing velvet throughout fall and winter collections, bringing out most exciting "date dresses" and evening modes styled for "date" wear, for afternoon and after twilight formals, in charming off-duty contrast to sturdy uniforms and functional workday outfits.

There are many outstanding slants to the velvet vogue that make for big news just now. One is that of the simply tailored afternoon velvet suit that is conceded to be one of the smartest items on fashion's program this season. It adds to its lure that it is so dramatically adaptable to the accompaniment of show-piece furs, lovely, lacy blouses, glittering jeweled buttons and, what is most important, high color touches in gloves, bags and beguiling hats.

Then, too, stunning separate coats made of ink-black velvet luxuriously collared in ink-black for carry a message of ace-high chic for winter. Which all goes to show that no matter how formal or casual your社科 moments are, there will be lovely, appropriate costumes for the occasion done in regal velvet which will make you as feminine and elegant as your best beau's heart could desire.

Suitable for any "date," from afternoon to midnight, is the charming priority-correct furlough frock shown to the right in the above illustration.

Shawl to Match

As Scotch as heather is this plaid outfit made of spun rayon fabric dyed for true color combinations. The material has a warm, woolly finish. The navy sweater is piped in the plaid of the skirt. The outfit includes slacks, a man's lined vest, a calot and, most important of all, a three-cornered fringed shawl made of the identical plaid used for the dress. The idea of a cunning shawl "to match" is taking the young campus crowd by storm. These are often embroidered in peasant style and colorfully finished off with hand-tied yarn fringe or with a self-fabric, frayed-fringe edge.

IT IS the military air—in the double row of buttons down the front—which gives this young frock its glamour! The same feature makes the dress a practical one, for little girls can get in and out of it unaided. Clever piecing gives the frock a full swinging skirt.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1647-B is designed for sizes 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 years.

Mount Rainier

Mount Rainier, which rises 14,408 feet above sea level and towers 11,000 feet above its own immediate base, is the third highest elevation in the continental U. S. and has the greatest number of glaciators.

It was named in 1792 by Capt. George Vancouver, the English navigator and explorer, after the British Admiral Peter Rainier, who figured in the American Revolution.

The flattery of handsome velvet in deep, rich black is combined with the enchantment of exquisite lace in the charming dinner dress illustrated in the center above, which is designed especially for the woman whose program includes club activities. The graceful, long lines of this dress are accented by effective, velvet-banded puffed sleeves of thin-to-transparent black lace. A cluster of flowers adds coloring to the softly draped neckline.

Enthusiasm for velvet is also finding a new outlet this season in that most important vogue which calls for decorative accents, especially velvet gloves matched to hats, the ensemble carried out in daring colors, notably fuchsia shades, Kelly green, turquoise, and flaming red.

Small or Large—

Hats Are Feathered

Gorgeously colorful feather hats are out in full force. They range from the pheasant-pad calots (so tiny you have to look twice before you can identify them as hats) to pillboxes and dashing types that flaunt towering crowns with imposing feather motif trim.

A charming feather fantasy that does the "pretty-pretty" gesture is the halo of pastel feather flowers that pose back of your forehead curl.

The single ostrich plume swirls from the front over the top of the hat to the back where it falls low to the nape of the neck.

Ruffles Galore Are Seen

On Coats, Skirts, Suits

Be on the lookout for ruffles galore, for many of the newest fashions are being smartly styled with ruffles.

Even cloth coats are taking on ruffle effects, such as cascades of self fabric running down side closings from neckline to hemline. Tailored suits, too, are softened with jabots of self fabric on the jacket fronts. Afternoon dresses have cascades of ruffles on both skirts and bodice tops. Tiny flutings and ruche effects finish off the hemlines of narrow skirts.

Cozy 'Nightsies'

The flannelette nightgowns that we'll be wearing this winter will be old-fashioned, long-sleeved ones. Women who never wore these quaint types will be wearing them this year. Some of them are really very pretty, made as they are of flower prints in delectable colors.

Best Food Storage in Outdoor Cellar or Cave

Storeroom Style Depends On Contour of the Land

The most nearly ideal food storage space on the farm is the outdoor, underground cellar or cave.

It is set all or part way into the ground, banked over with earth, floored and lined with masonry, and fitted with one or more ventilators for air movement. This type of storage provides the best natural conditions for canned fruit, pails or other tightly covered containers, as well as for whole fruits and vegetables. It also serves as a storm cellar for the farm family.

In some areas the bank cellar may be the best solution to the storage problem this fall. The bank cellar belongs on rolling ground. The lower part is masonry construction and is set back into the sloping ground. The upper part may be made of lumber, insulated in the upper walls and roof with sawdust or commercial insulation.

Another useful storeroom—and usually the simplest and best for the home with finished basement—is the special storage room in the basement.

A small room space, five or six feet wide and as long as may be Perhaps there was such a thing as a unicorn. Describe it as an animal chiefly like a horse, but with one horn in the center of its forehead and you have the unicorn of heraldry, the unicorn in the British royal arms.

Both China and Japan have traditions of unicorns, but from India comes the clearest description: Ctesias wrote that in India were wild asses bearing a single horn in their foreheads. Perhaps there were, but no relics of these beasts have yet been found.

THE illustration shows what became of a mirror and piano stool. To the mirror and stool were added two wooden boxes from the grocery. These were placed on end about 14 inches apart and a shelf of half-inch plywood was screwed to the top. A frame was then screwed to the back of the boxes as shown. A curtain rod was placed across the top and the mirror hung lengthwise under it. An arm was then hinged to the front of each box. Paint was next. White, because white furniture is smart and because it matched the woodwork.

The dressing-table skirt was made with a one-inch heading at the top and tacked along the ends of the table and the hinged arms with thumbtacks through a double strip of the plain material.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

For years the U. S. has consumed over half the world's supply of rubber. China and India, however, are the chief importers by the U. S. was used in the manufacture of tires and tubes and fire accessories.

Last year a 6,000 by 16 4-ply black sidewall tire weighed 21.54 pounds, of which 11.2 pounds was crude rubber. The balance of the weight was rubber, fabric, wire and chemicals.

Several years ago a man from Seattle traded a small house for one of the earliest types of automobile tires, of which he was a collector.

The most welcome gift for a Ugandan bride of Africa is an old automobile tire, which she uses as a necklace on special occasions.

The tires on the "Spirit of St. Louis" in the Smithsonian Institution are fifteen years old and still good.

GRANADA HIGH'S NEED OF SPORTS

Grenada High has always been able to say that some of its students recognized the need of sports and recreation. At the present, however, there seems to be a definite decrease in the participation of the students in the various forms of recreation. They seem to prefer to mope around or sit upon the railings around the front of the school.

We should realize that at noon we need to exert ourselves, for we haven't up to noon. It will clear away some of the early morning "mish" from our brains. In laboratory tests it has been shown that with an increase of oxygen the person's efficiency has been increased by 15 percent.

There is only one way we, here at school can become more alert and that is, instead of hanging around the railings or steps, getting out and taking exercise. It would be far better for us to run around the school house and dash home and back than to loaf the way we have been doing.

In the near future there will be a soft ball and bat for both girls and boys. I am sorry to say that there has always been a major problem to get the girls to go out for any kind of sport. What is the matter girls? Are most of you the little white lily type or is it that you are just too fastidious to do anything athletic?

Well, there are two more chances for you in competitive sports this year. One is in basketball; the other tennis. There is an opportunity, however, for all the pupils to take part in various games at noon. Let's play ball games about the Malayan customs.

TALK MADE BY MR. HARRY FISH

Mr. Harry Fish, an employee of Chas. T. Main, made a very interesting and instructive talk in chapel program Wednesday. Mr. Fish spoke of the Dutch East Indies, where he had spent three years. He told many interesting anecdotes about the Malayan customs and gave us much information about the birds, animals, and vegetation of the Indies.

We all hope Mr. Fish will come back and tell us more about these interesting people and places.

GRANADA PUSHED TO BEAT SAINTS 6 TO 0

Playing in ankle deep mud and a downpour of rain, the Grenada Bulldogs, squeezed out a 6 to 0 victory over Sardis Friday afternoon at Sardis.

The Bulldogs' lone score came in the second quarter when Turnipseed ploughed off right tackle for 30 yards and the touchdown. Purdie failed to push the ball over for the extra point. Sardis threatened Grenada's goal several times, but was unable to push the ball across.

Having a record of five wins and no losses in conference competition, the Bulldogs will play a non-conference opponent Friday night when they go against Canton at Proby Field.

SPORTLIGHTS

John Box Just a reminder that the Bulldogs scrubbed Winona "A to the bar" last Friday night to the tune of 27 to 6. Also just a reminder that "Turnip" is "re-entered" his way through a stubborn aggregation of Winona gridmen for all four of the Bulldogs' touchdowns—which by the way, makes him just about the high scorer in the conference. This week the Bulldogs venture up to Sardis where the men of Sardis will attempt to stop "Ole Bully's" growl—but, just between you and me, me thinks that Sardis is gonna get "bit" mighty bad, for this year "Bully's" fangs are sharp and poisonous.

Wonder if the "Dean of D.-O." has got the "kinks" out of his "hints" yet from that game of "modified" softball that was played not so long ago? If Turnipseed's batting average doesn't take a sudden "slump" Yours truly thinks it would be permissible to classify him with the immortal "Cassey At Bat."

Have you ever noticed the Volley ball game that "rages" on each noon hour behind the school building. It appears to me that they throw more words across the net than they do the ball—but when they get hot they play a fast and furious game of ball. Drop around and see, sometimes. Watch Walter Sid in action.

Now putting one little thing after another, the chances for a baseball team looks mighty slim this year. Basketball also has a fair chance of getting in. There probably will be intramural basketball though. Here's wishing the team a "Bon Voyage" to Sardis—take 'em for a "Boogie Ride" team.

Having a record of five wins and no losses in conference competition, the Bulldogs will play a non-conference opponent Friday night when they go against Canton at Proby Field.

NEW MEMBERS ELECTED TO NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Mr. Hathorn announced in chapel Wednesday the names of the new members of the National Honor Society. He stressed the fact that to be a member of that organization is one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a high school student. The new members are Jay Gore, Marguerite Stanley, and Mary Elizabeth Cowan.

GIRL RESERVES MEET

Thursday afternoon the Girl Reserves met for the third time this year. The meeting opened with a short worship program, conducted by Lucy Moss, Margaret Cannon and Lula Mae McCormick. After the club had sung "Follow the Gleam," the program was turned over to Margaret Green, Mary Elizabeth Cowan, and Billy Saunders, who gave the club a sketch of Girl Reserves Conference, which they attended as delegates last week-end at Kosciusko. It was then announced to the delight of the whole club, that Margaret Green had elected Vice President of the conference.

The meeting closed after a short business session, conducted by the President, Marguerite Stanley.

"FOOD ('AND YOUTH) WILL WIN THE WAR AND WRITE THE PEACE"

On America's far-flung fronts—production lines as well as scenes of battle—young people of vision and courage are fighting for the land they love.

Right here at home, boys and girls you know—our 4-H Club Members—are doing an outstanding job of producing the food which, as has so often been said, "will win the war and write the peace."

HATS OFF TO YOUTH

National 4-H Achievement Week

NOVEMBER 7-14

National 4-H Achievement Week is a well-deserved recognition of what these boys and girls have done—are doing—will do—to win this war.

Take time to tell these boys and girls that you appreciate what they are doing—learn more about their projects. Let's all join them in a real observance of National 4-H Achievement Week.

As an agricultural industry, working closely with the Extension Service and 4-H Clubs, your local Cotton Oil Mill is glad to sponsor this message—We KNOW that 4-H Clubs of this community have real achievements, and we're proud to work with them.

The Nation's steel mills are running out of scrap. They haven't enough on hand for even 30 days more. When this is gone they may have to shut down—for all new steel is 50% scrap. Get your scrap ready to turn in now!

WHOSE BOY WILL DIE BECAUSE YOU FAILED?

Or maybe you don't care?

We think you do. We feel that our whole community is ready to rise up and bring in the scrap as soon as you get a chance. So you're going to get that chance!

Next week we're starting the biggest drive you've ever seen, to get in this precious material. And you're going to pitch in, too, because this situation is serious.

Start looking around your place for scrap today. If you've got a son in the service, do it for him. Do it for the neighbor's boy—for those fine young chaps you just passed out on the street.

Above all do it for your country... and do it now!

THINK about it as revenge—a way to get back at the scum who have attacked us. Or think about it as a little more protection for our fighting men—something you, yourself, can do to bring as many as possible home alive.

But think about it now—for the scrap in homes, farms and factories has got to be moving to stockpiles within the next few weeks or it may be too late!

Maybe you don't know what it means to have production fall off. Maybe you can't imagine how it feels to be hunkered down in a foxhole wishing for just one more clip of cartridges. Or to see the enemy rolling through your lines because you didn't have just a few more tanks.

Dist. Meeting For Industrial Scrap Collection Held

The war bond sales certainly picked up in Grenada County during October, this county bought 131 percent of its quota in October, compared to the quota record contained in an editorial in this newspaper a month ago, which it made in the month of September. Still Grenada County is behind Calhoun County which bought 175 percent of its quota in October.

Dear Orley: I received the copy of the invoice, but I did not receive the goods; although the invoice was marked "PAID".

How about some personal stationery for men in service or for the old lady or the sweetie? See our samples. Patriotic home industry.

I heard over the radio this morning an announcement that all married men without children would likely get "orders" from the President before the end of the year. Maybe some of the single ones, apparently overlooked, will get a letter from the President before the war is over, provided the war lasts ten years.

I hope and some of the beer boys are going to protest the beer election on November grounds. As stated last week, I think this is an extremely futile and foolish gesture. The people spoke in no unmistakable terms. I voted to keep beer, but I was in the minority and how! so I yield to the majority gracefully, especially when I seldom drink any beer anyway.

We sent off the "copy" for 16 pages of our rotogravure supplement last Saturday and hope to send the other 16 pages this week.

Things were better on the Peavine and West Ward last Saturday night.

The war is not over yet. As Churchill said "this is not the beginning of the end; it is the end of the beginning".

Grenada County led the state in the scrap drive, turning in 1,232,000 pounds of scrap up to the close of the official campaign, November 11. This was 64.07 pounds per capita. Grenada County's nearest rival for top honor in this state was Chickasaw county with 48.12 pounds per capita. Mr. J. M. Talbert is county chairman, and he is not going to relax his search for scrap, for the need of scrap did not end on November 11, nor will it end until the war ends.

Miss Betty Rule is our very latest subscriber in Bakersfield, California. She has sense, beauty and poise.

Aint they sweet.

While we expected to close the gates on the rotogravure supplement about a week ago, the delay in receiving a few scattered pictures caused us to postpone the closing date which will POSITIVELY be Saturday noon. While we have sought to see everyone, we may have failed to see some. If so, you can STILL get in the so-called black and white part of the paper about half the price paid for appearing in the rotogravure. This is 32 pages of rotogravure - the ONLY such issue ever published in the state of Mississippi.

Miss Gladys Rule has gone to Bakersfield, California to reside with her daughter, Miss Betty.

Let's keep the Peavine and West Ward, as well as other sections of the city quiet as possible.

Had a nice letter from Robert Murphy who is in Athens, Georgia with Uncle Sam. Hope to publish it next week.

Kids sort of get on your nerves when all of them are at home, but it is particularly quiet around our home with all four of ours away from home - two in the Army and two in college. I think I could stand a little noise now and then.

The Presbyterians of Grenada are setting a good example by furnishing several of their Sunday School rooms for the entertainment of the soldiers. They are not quite ready, but will be soon.

FOR SALE: one 1 h. p. Westinghouse 2 phase electric motor, in excellent condition. 1100 RPM. $50.00 cash money.

I believe Grenada will be proud of the rotogravure edition we are getting out. It will be a credit to Grenada, to the camp and to the GOW.

Look at the expiration date on YOUR paper and, if you are "out", send in the cash money.

The "Jack Barn" is getting to be right pretty.

Mr. William M. Dubard Celebrates 95th Birthday

The Industrial Salvage Program of the WPA was explained to a group of Grenada industrialists at a meeting Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was called by Mr. Earl Burkley, member of the Executive Committee of the Industrial Salvage Program. Mr. E. M. Taylor, General Sales Manager of Mississippi Power & Light Co., who is serving as State Chairman, brought out the imperative need of scrap iron and steel with which to keep the steel furnaces of our country operating to supply the guns, tanks, airplanes, and ships needed in the war. It was emphasized that the Industrial Salvage Program would not in any way conflict with the general salvage program which has been so successful in Mississippi.

Attention to the Industrial Scrap Program is being focused on the dormant and obsolete equipment in industrial plants throughout the nation. Industry has done a splendid job in providing the implements of war and also in furnishing scrap. Under the present conditions, 70 percent of the scrap will have to come from American industries, as normal scrap sources are not sufficient to meet the requirements. It was emphasized that we at home must unite and do our part in this all out war effort in order to back up our fighting forces on the far flung battle fronts.

As 17,000,000 tons of scrap will be needed between July 1 and December 31, 1942, each industry is urged to make a complete survey of their plant and classify all unused or obsolete equipment, so that it can be scraped or put in use by someone else in the war effort.

Mr. John S. Knox, District Manager of the Industrial Salvage Section of WPA, Jackson, Miss., informed those attending the meeting that the WPA would be glad to list any unused equipment that might be offered for sale that could be used by other industries. Mr. Knox also answered questions regarding the program.

Mr. P. T. Latrone, Division Manager of the Mississippi Power & Light Company, stated that his company was cooperating in the program. The company has volunteered representatives who will make two calls on each industry in the Grenada Area to explain the Industrial Salvage Program and to secure a report for WPA covering the scrap disposed of.

Each industry is asked to appoint an industrial salvage manager who will have authority to make complete inventory of all scrap possible in line with the slogan of the program, which is, "If it hasn't been used in three months and no one can prove that it is going to be used in three months, find a use for it or scrap it."

Among those attending the meeting were: J. E. Allen, Winona Gin; L. E. Solar, Grenada Industries, Inc.; H. S. Thomas, Miss. Power & Light Co.; Rupert Rhoads, Mayor of Winona; Cliff Johnson, Miss. Power & Light Co.; Joe Thompson, Allen Cooperage; W. A. Williams, Miss. Power & Light Co.; J. R. Phillips, Phillips Lumber Co.; A. C. Hooper, Mayor of Eupora; W. M. Sutton, Miss. Power & Light Co.; L. D. Boone, Grenada Stove Co.; C. C. Cathey, Bellgrade Lumber Co.; R. E. Williams, Mayor of Charleston; R. S. Herring, Miss. Power & Light Co.; L. M. Taylor and P. T. Latrone, Miss. Power & Light Co.; John S. Knox, WPA, and W. W. Whitaker, Editor The Grenada County Weekly.

Scrap Chairman Talbert Makes Final Report

I would like to personally thank the different chairmen of each group, also the County Vice Chairman, Mrs. Noel, of the Chamber of Commerce, also the Grenada High School group and every man, woman and child in Grenada County for the fine cooperation given me in the scrap drive.

The Woman's Club for their untiring efforts in behalf of the drive, the County Supervisors for the use of their county trucks, also the City of Grenada for use of trucks.

Each person that took part in this drive showed the patriotic spirit of the citizens of Grenada county and showed that when Grenada County has a job to do no matter what it may be, that they have the will to do it.

To have served as your County Chairman has been a pleasure and I sincerely thank each of you for your cooperation and it is with thanks to the newspapers for their cooperation throughout the campaign that I want to say thank you.

Our final report shows over 71 lbs per capita.

J. M. TALBERT, County Chairman Salvage for Victory Campaign.

Dennis Spence, one of Uncle Sam's fighting men, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. "Shorty" Spence.

Death Ends The Career Of Claud Augustine Perry

On Wednesday afternoon, November 11, 1942 death wrote "Finis" to the career of Claud Augustine Perry, native of Grenada County, in his home in Grenada.

Mr. Perry was the son of the late Mr. J. E. Perry and Mrs. Susan A. Perry, both of whom were lifelong residents of Grenada and Grenada County. He was born near Grayport, this county, on November 15, 1879. He was a graduate of Grenada High School and of Draughton Business College in Memphis. For 28 years, he was agent here for the Standard Oil Company, starting back in the days when only coal oil was sold, and gasoline was a waste product. On December 23, 1908 he and Miss Willie Mae Lee, member of a prominent Holmes county family, were married in Acme, Mississippi. Two children, Pvt. John Rufus Perry and Mrs. Irvin Johnson, came to this union. Since 1893, he has been a member of the First Baptist Church of Grenada. At the time of his death he was a member of the City Council of Grenada and Chairman of the Grenada County Rationing Board.

Claud was a fellow who did not hesitate to speak his mind, whether what he said suited his audience or not. He was one of those men, like the late Dr. D. O. Semmes and the late Mr. Claud Hall, who tried to shield a kind heart by a hard-boiled attitude, but he did not fool anyone who knew him, for he was extremely kind hearted and the good deeds that he has done will fill a large volume, if known.

Our Rotogravure Supplement

Our rotogravure supplement will be an integral part of some future edition of our newspaper, possibly the first edition in December. Every subscriber will therefore receive a copy of the supplement through the mail.

We have just about "closed up" the rotogravure section and are not soliciting any further space, but, until the "ALL OUT FOR VICTORY" EDITION" comes out, those who wish to be represented can have space in the regular edition, that is the black and white part of the issue. We have already secured several pages of ads for this black and white section.

No one has intentionally been slighted. So far as we know every prospective cooperator has been approached by Mr. Meyers, who did most of the work of preparing this issue.

So far as we know this will be the ONLY rotogravure supplement ever issued by ANY newspaper in the State of Mississippi. As it will contain 32 pages, it will be among the LARGEST ever issued ANYWHERE.

Things Quieter Here Saturday Night

Things were much quieter on the Peayline and in "West Ward" Saturday night than they were on the previous Saturday night when hell popped in those sections. I am speaking of the conditions around 10:30 when I made another tour by car through these sections.

Only the good natured carrying-on of the negroes and the laughter and fun inherent in that race were to be observed. I did not see a single white soldier in all of my rounds last Saturday night. The grist that the civil officers brought in the grind at the courts was not nearly so heavy last Monday as it was on the previous Monday, and this circumstance bears out what I said, that things were better.

The negroes have their own sections of this city. White civilians have no business meddling in those sections, and white soldiers should be MADE to keep out, as apparently they were kept out last Saturday night.

It is no reflection upon the negro soldier and civilian to say that he prefers to associate with members of his own race, and he should be permitted to do so without interference from white people.

Armistice Day, A Hollow Mockery At This Time

There seemed to be something fantastic and unreal in celebrating "Armistice Day" on Wednesday of this week. Celebrating Armistice Day when the world is engaged in a much greater war than the Armistice Day of 1918 temporally closed seems like damn foolishness to me.

Celebrating Armistice Day now is very much like celebrating one's father's birthday several years after the old gentleman had been buried on the sunny slopes at Odd Fellows Cemetery.

It just does not make any sense.

Things We Refuse To Believe

We civilians are just around the corner from those shortages about which there has been a lot of talk. It will not be long before we shall be unable to buy items from an increasingly long list of luxuries and comforts.

Official spokesmen have warned that 300,000 retail stores will have to go out of business before the end of next year, and that we consumers will find ourselves back in the dark days of 1933, when the nation's worst depression was at its lowest point.

Competent business economists say that even this gloomy prediction is too optimistic—that, in fact, we are going back to the pre-World War I era before many of our now accustomed gadgets first went into mass production and became available to the rank and file.

We have been warned about this prospect time after time and then have gone to the stores and found it possible to buy anything for which we had the money. After so many apparently false alarms some of us are a bit indignant now that the pinch begins to be felt.

We shouldn't be. The alarms were real. The warnings were legitimate. They may have been a bit premature, but the intention of that was to break the bad news gradually.

The reason why, up to recently, we found plenty of everything in the stores was that we were drawing upon a huge reserve stock, made before factories began converting to war production. But the stock was not being renewed, and now it is getting dismally thin.

There still are a lot of labor-saving, comfort-producing, even luxury items to be had. But as each store cleans out its own reserve it cannot replenish, and so for more and more items each week we have to shop from store to store in hope that, by good chance, we shall find one that still isn't sold out.

Fortunately the pinch is going to be worse in the commodity fields where it will do least real harm.

There is no overall shortage in the raw materials for food and clothing. Some items are scarce, and some will disappear entirely: we won't have the wide selection of brands, sizes, containers, etc., to which we have become accustomed.

As we watch retail outlets disappear and shelves become bare in those that remain, we can console ourselves with the thought that—however we are deprived by contrast with 1939—everybody in the United States still can get more of necessities, and will have more of comforts, than the average man had in 1914.

Our standard of living is destined to fall.

Our chickens of reform are returning to roost. All of them are not war birds. Many of them were bred before the dark days of war in Europe.

Our soft ways must go. The hard ways of our pioneer fathers will return.

But America in the end will be stabilized. We hope and pray that this stabilization will return during this decade—or this generation.—McComb Enterprise.

Unused Churches, America's Greatest Unused Asset

We have heard preachers say—via radio only—that, if we lose the war, the churches and religion in this country are likewise lost. I agree with this.

This being true, it follows then that the churches should exert every possible influence to see that the war is won.

Today, as never before, America, especially in defense areas, faces most acute shortages of space for offices, schools and other public or semi-public agencies.

The auditoriums in the churches of America are, at most, used not over three hours a week, while the vast number of Sunday School rooms are used ONLY one hour per week.

I seldom occupy space in either the auditorium or in the Sunday School rooms—not that I should not do so, I grant—and, therefore, I can look at the matter from a practical, not a religious standpoint.

With vital agencies in defense areas looking for space to work, and, in some areas, with the school plants inadequate to take care of the children very dear to the men spending a few brief months in America ere they embark on a perilous journey to a highly uncertain fate, it seems that some of this unused space, which is equipped for heating, lighting and sanitation, could be used on week days for purposes conducive to the efficient prosecution of the war effort.

What do YOU think?

How To Farm

As some of my readers may know, I used to be a farmer. My father gave me 240 acres of the best land in Grenada county right after the first World War. The old lady and I worked hard there for about fourteen years, wasting the most productive periods of our lives, and finally deeded the farm to our creditor. Therefore we are just as well prepared to tell folks how to farm as any county agent or high-powered A. & M. specialist. Here's how to farm:

RULE NO. 1—Don't bother buying fertilizer. In the first place you can't get what the experts tell you to get and in the second place if you get it, there goes your profit, if any . . . and in the third place, why fertilize for the profit of weeds and bugs? NOTE: On 6 acres this should save you about $20 which you can set down to clear profit.

RULE NO. 2—Get all the bulletins you can from the county agent's office. They make nice wintertime reading and once you have read the catalogue of bugs, insects and worms which lie in wait for whatever you plan to plant, you will realize the hopelessness of feeding all of them satisfactorily and decide not to plant a garden again this year. This should represent a saving of about $10 and you can chalk this up to profit, too.

RULE NO. 3—Put up a sign "No Hunting" so you can protect your grey squirrels. They will busily plant seeds of oaks and pine all over the place and in practically no time at all you will have a fine stand of new young timber. In twenty years this should be worth perhaps fifty dollar an acre, whereupon you can have it cut, retire and spend the rest of your old age watching the squirrels work hard for a new crop to put your grandchildren through college.

ONCLUSION: There are other ways of farming, I am told, but all the rest represent entirely too much effort and none of them will show anything like the profit of the method I have carefully outlined here.

One Victory Does Not Win A War

In less than 24 hours after the announcement that troops and supplies of the United Nations have landed somewhere on the Mediterranean coast of French Africa, we hear numerous comments that "it won't be long now." Even though the German army is in full retreat, and even though the whole Axis force in Egypt is captured or annihilated, we should not forget that this battle sector is small, involving only about 125,000 troops, whereas there still remain millions on the Russian front and deep in Russian territory. There is no question but that, with the establishment of a new front by the Allies and with the possible complete rout of the German and Italian forces in Egypt, the morale of the Axis will be affected greatly.

However, it is wholly illogical and unreasonable to believe that we shall witness less than the best that can be thrown against Hitler's enemies until late in 1943. The Germans have made more enemies than they had in the last war, they have conquered more territory which they want to hold and finally they have less faith in the outcome of a peace settlement in their favor than did the war lords of the Kaiser. Their backs are to the wall; they know they must fight on. They believe it is a battle or be annihilated—that they shall be conquered in battle or be annihilated in the end by those whom they have conquered and persecuted mercilessly.

We believe, too, that Germany and Italy will be the first of the Axis alliance to quit or be conquered, but what Germany does or what the United Nations are able to do to her is one thing and dealing with Japan is quite another matter. Ray Cromley, writing in the Wall Street Journal says, "Japan wants an exhausted world to deal with one that will be easy to handle. Thus, to the Japanese mind, the United Nations are useful in 'exhausting' the Germans, just as the Germans are valuable in 'exhausting' the United Nations."

Of our enemies, Japan is the most war-minded. She looked further into the future in mapping out her course of destruction and she has been actively engaged in war longer than either of the Axis nations. After more than three years of war against China we counted her through. We said she wanted to turn loose and couldn't. We said she was bankrupt, her people were tired of war and her essential supplies for waging war longer were depleted. We basked in the limelight of such misleading statements as, "Her soldiers are dumb; her aviators can't fly," etc. Many have contended that Japan has spread herself too thinly; we must recognize the fact that the United Nations, in delivering supplies to their allies to maintain their own bases of operations, cover by far more nautical miles than Japan.

Of course the picture looks brighter and the end is some nearer but let's not forget that we shall have an enemy to deal with long after the echo of the last shot in Europe has died out.

The sooner all of us forget the beer election and get back to an important matter—that of helping win the war—the better off all of us will be.

It is extremely likely that the sale of beer will be illegal in Grenada County on November 19, after the board of supervisors meets in a call session on the 18th.

Aint they sweet.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of waste products. The act of living—itself—is constantly producing waste matter. If good health is a pleasure, then the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.

When the kidneys do not function as Nature

Local and Social Activities

Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, president, presided. Mrs. Sax Weir led the devotional. Mrs. W. J. Sherwood, secretary, read the minutes of preceding meeting.

Business was attended to and a nominating committee for the 1943 officers was named. Next week the Auxiliary will meet in the lovely country home of Mrs. J. W. Jordan at 2 o'clock. The reason for the early hour of meeting is to avoid the afternoon traffic rush from Camp McCain.

LUNCHEON FOR OFFICERS

WIVES

On Thursday, November 5, the Iris Club members were hostesses to a group of Army Officers' wives at a luncheon arranged in the dining room of the Community House. Mrs. J. K. Arnett, president of the Club assisted by Mrs. Will Hill greeted the guests at one o'clock. Mrs. Vandiver recited the Iris Club poem before the guests were seated at the luncheon table and later Mrs. Dawson Winter, of Jackson, read two of her poems.

The lovely flowers used to decorate the reception and dining room were from the gardens of the town, and especially lovely were the chrysanthemums gracing the luncheon tables. Quaint soldier figures marked the honored guests' places at the table. A beautiful plate containing creme chicken, potatoes, pickle and olives was served as first course, and delectable egg nog pudding and coffee for dessert. The Club presented Mrs. Ryder, wife of Colonel Ryder, a lovely corsage as she was seated at the head of the table. Approximately 60 plates were served.

We failed to chronicle the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Moody, of Arcata, Calif., were visitors in the home of their niece, Mrs. John Bradley. This is their first visit here in about ten years and certainly proved a most delightful one. Mr. Moody is a brother of Mrs. Bradley's father, the late Mr. T. E. Moody.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weir left Monday for South Carolina to reside. Mr. Weir is employed by J. A. Jones Construction Co.

Private Andrew Donelson Whitaker, second son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, was sent from Camp Shelby, Miss., to Maxwell Field, Ala., where he was classed as aviation radio apprentice. He was then sent to Smyrna Field within 20 miles of Nashville, Tenn., for instructions.

Mrs. W. K. Kuhne is happy to have her mother here for a visit.

Pvt. Sydney T. Kettle, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kettle and Pvt. Thomas D. McLeod, son of Mrs. Alice McLeod have joined the Army Air Corps and are classified as mechanics of ground force. They enlisted in Memphis and were sent to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and are now stationed at the Air Base at Jackson, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Echols at the Tie Plant, were happy to have their two fine children, Miss Virginia, member of the school faculty at Albertville, Ala., as music teacher, and Lt. Barney Echols, of Miami Beach, Fla., at home for a week-end visit last week. They left early Tuesday morning. "Bubber" will report to a camp near Salt Lake City, Utah for duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neely and Mrs. Ben Brown visited their children, Joe Neely, Jr., and family and Mrs. Sam Houston and family in Birmingham, this past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jones, of Cleveland, visited their mother, Mrs. Annie Jones on Sunday.

Miss Louise Avent, of Ole Miss, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. "Skeet" Alexander and baby of Memphis, were here the past week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. "Alex" Alexander and Mrs. C. C. Provine.

Christmas cards a year ago must do the same this year.

Maximum charges cotton warehouses may make for resampling and re-weighting haven't been changed, says OPA but increases have been allowed only for storage and handling of cotton.

MORE RABBITS WANTED Hat makers are facing a shortage of felt. Wild rabbit fur is used to make felt, and since rabbits destroy crops we can kill two-thirds with one stone by shooting rabbits.

Definite plans for a winter scrap campaign are being made by county salvage chairman.

Motorists are warned to dispose of extra tire salt "o'er live per car" before the new gas rationing date; motorizing between summer and winter vacation homes is out for the duration.

SAFETY RAZORS CUT

No more safety razors will be made for civilian use. Blades, however, will still be manufactured.

Use of stainless steel in a long list which includes things from coffee pots and knives to farm machinery will soon be a thing of the past. No copper may be used in buildings from now on. All new farm machinery is frozen.

ARMY WANTS TYPEWRITERS

Typewriters are standard equipment on every bombing plane, at every field headquarters, on every battleship. Typewriter dealers are buying those made since 1935 for the Army and Navy.

Milk cans and all wire fencing used on farms will soon be rationed. Use of burlap bags is going to be restricted.

War industries have been instructed to stop recruiting "necessary" men from farming centers.

We recently received a renewal from one of our prettiest subscribers, Mrs. Charles Dickinson of Pine Bluff.

Beer likely will vanish from the controlled places when the Board of Supervisors meet on November 16th.

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

If you have not used it (any machinery) in three months, and if it can not be proved to you that it will be needed in the next three months, junk it is the slogan of the Industrial Scrap Committee. By applying that rule to your plant, you may pour many pounds of scrap into the hungry hopper.

We are closing out the rotogravure supplement space this week. We will try to see you about space in the black and white (or regular edition). This "All Out For Victory" edition will be the largest edition ever mailed out of the Grenada post office and the FIRST rotogravure supplement ever put out by a Mississippi newspaper. EVERY subscriber will get one, for the rite part will be just another part of the regular edition. The City of Grenada will "lay up" 500 copies of the rite supplement, and the C. of C. will "lay up" a similar number, for future use. We will have some extra copies for sale. If you want extra copies mailed out, we will mail them for 25 cents each. Just supply us with mailing addresses and 2 bits each. We will do the rest.

Aint they sweet.

NOTICE
Due to a change of plans, All Saints' Auxiliary will not meet at Mrs. Jordan's home as announced.
